ARCHIOL ARTUMINATE ANNUAL ARCHITECTURE THESIS COMPETITION

2021

THESIS
COMPETITION

INTRODUCTION

The first edition of Archiol's Architecture Thesis Competition.

Architecture thesis, the ultimate yet the preliminary test of the student being molded as an architect, the initial years that contribute into forging a designer that eventually formulates a collaboration of all the wisdom accumulated over the academic years, the inventive years which birth the composition of the incomprehensible ideas, known as thesis.

A4TC is an international architecture thesis competition that aims at promoting the amazing ideas nurtured with extensive research and thoughts. An acknowledgment of the efforts and creativity presented as the Architecture thesis by the future of architecture.

A competition designed to present your unimaginable and problem solving architectural ideas at a global scale.

A4TC is considering architectural thesis of the past decade (2011-2021).
