DESIGN DEVELOPMENT

The process of designings

---

Introduction:

'Design development – the process of designing' is a design competition organized by archiol | artuminate. The competition mainly aims to understand the initial stage of design development. How does the process of designing evolve, the entire process from nothing to a habitable structure? What is your method of developing design?

The design project can be:

- situated in any location
- any type
- any scale

The competition expects you to:

- Show your design process through sketches, models, videos, photographs, or any other method you use to design.
- Explain your conceptual design development.

Basic Submission requirements:

- Presentation Board of the conceptual development - size: 30cmx30cm (minimum 2 boards, maximum 5 boards) – no. the presentation board.
- Text summary (min: 200 words, max: 500 words)
